Instructions: Please write your answers to the following questions.

1. What have you learned about yourself and your recovery that could inspire others working on their recovery if you share the information?

   Answer:

2. How would you communicate your personal recovery story to others?

   Answer: