

ASPIRE LAB

Advancing Suicide Prevention for underserved Veterans

www.mirecc.va.gov/visn19/aspire

Hiring a Programmer & Analyst

The ASPIRE lab at the VA Rocky Mountain Mental Illness Research, Education and Clinical Center for Veteran Suicide Prevention is currently hiring.

Seeking Expertise In Some of the Following:

Big Data Management

VA data experience & SQL experience preferred

Complex Survey Design & Analysis

including sampling design, weighting & analysis

Statistical Modeling

including Poisson, logistic, survival, & longitudinal approaches

Psychometrics

including confirmatory factor analysis, & item response theory

ASPIRE Lab seeks to improve suicide prevention for Veterans that are:

- Underrepresented
- Underserved
- Not engaged in VA healthcare
- Unstably housed
- Women
- Racial & ethnic minorities
- Justice system involved

Location: Denver, CO or Remote*
*for qualified applicants

ASPIRE Research Methodology

- Clinical & Epidemiological approaches to suicide prevention
- Surveys & Cohort Studies
- Qualitative Interviews & Focus Groups

ASPIRE Lab Leadership

Lindsey Monteith, PhD
Clinical Research Psychologist

Claire Hoffmire, PhD
Epidemiologist

Ryan Holliday, PhD
Clinical Research Psychologist

Interested in learning more about these open positions?
E-mail Claire.Hoffmire@va.gov & Lindsey.Monteith@va.gov

