Problem Solving/Goal Setting Record

Discuss the problem or goal. Get everyone's opinion. Try to reach agreement on exactly what the problem/goal is. Write down specifically what the problem/goal is.

__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________

Brainstorm at least three possible solutions (five is better). Do not evaluate them at this time—wait until step 3.

__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________

Briefly evaluate each solution. List major advantages and disadvantages.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Advantages</th>
<th>Disadvantages</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Choose the best solution(s). Consider how easy it would be to implement each solution and how likely it is to be effective.

__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________

Plan the implementation. When will it be implemented?

__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________

What resources are needed and how will they be obtained?

__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________

Who will do what to implement the solution?

__________________________________________________________________________